Your responsibilities & activities

You will be working on a wide range of mid-sized and large national and cross border projects for national and global high end clients within various industries. You will work under the supervision and monitoring of senior lawyers who will monitor your progress and train you with the aim of enhancing your skills and gradually gaining more responsibilities as well as visibility towards the clients.

Your team

As a junior Digital Lawyer you will be joining a core team of 10 lawyers highly specialized in data protection (GDPR), e-commerce, AI, cybersecurity, IP & IT. The team works closely with other teams at EY Law.

Your profile

· You have a Master's Degree in Law from a Belgian University, a specialization in Data Protection and/or P & ICT law is an asset;

· You have 0 to 3 years of working experience as a lawyer or legal counsel. Experience in digital law - and in particular in data protection - is an asset;

· You have an excellent knowledge of Dutch and English. Good written and oral communication in skills in French is an asset;

· You are dynamic and stress resistant, you are a team player and you are eager to learn new skills in a client focused and result oriented environment;

· You are available to start as soon as possible.

Our offer

What do we offer you:

· You will be working in law firm that stands at the forefront of innovation and is future-proof with its broad range of legal service offerings;

· You will be endorsing a role where you will be involved in complex and interesting (international) transactions and matters, with direct contact with clients and stakeholders;

EY Law

· In addition to our attractive salary and benefits package, you will be given room for personal business development, while benefiting from the support of our EY and EY Law network, and offered ample opportunities to learn and evolve in your role;

· Internal and external training opportunities.

· Flexibility in working locations : you can work from our offices in Diegem, Antwerp and/or Gent and/or combine with homeworking.
